Advantages for your investors

Accessibility

An investor can access the system via Internet, using a computer equipped with a modern browser and any operating system. The investor connects to the brokerage firm's InvestDirect server system, based on the access data supplied by his broker. InvestDirect ArenaWeb offers investors the access to all financial instruments listed and traded on Bucharest Stock Exchange, and therefore to every investment opportunity.

Real-Time Data

All operations on InvestDirect ArenaWeb are performed in real-time. Confirmations and messages from the exchange are also received by investors in real-time, without the need to place a request. Trading information (Market Data) is displayed in real-time in panels like Indices, Ticker and Market Watch. Same applies to the market depth information (full market-by-price view).

Order Types

All order types used for trading at Bucharest Stock Exchange are available on the InvestDirect ArenaWeb for the investors.

Portfolio

The portfolio function offers a consolidated display over the cash and instrument positions for each type of account managed by the investor. The portfolio is evaluated in real-time by the market price and the profit or the loss realized or to be realized are highlighted. Arena XT Web Version is a smart choice for investors wanting to diversify their investments.

Activity Monitoring

The investor has the possibility to monitor all the instructions executed on his account, through detailed reports of orders, trades and management operations on account level.

Charts

The charting module gives investors the possibility to design investment strategies based on the trading information and on specific indicators for this type of instrument.

Safety

The safety of the trading platform and the authentication, authorization and access is enforced through industry-standard mechanisms.

Performance

The fact that investors use InvestDirect ArenaWeb gives them the benefits of execution speed for instructions and orders ensured by Arena trading platforms. Investors just have a quick trading time.

Self-explained

The program is self-explanatory. All that an investor has to do is drag, drop and click. It's that simple that the investor don't even need a user-manual to use this software.

Freedom to choose your broker

Investors can choose among all brokerage firms authorized to trade at BVB.
