The company exploits the industrial platform from Sos. Borsului no. 35 and operates the installation of Benzoic Acid, installation of an advanced technical level, modernised at the end of the year, obtaining products meant mainly for the external market.

Following the investment works from the end of the year which materialised in processes of research, design, verification, acquisitions and executions of equipments, the rebuilding of the structural elements, the quality and capacity of the process for obtaining the benzoic acid was improved.

Currently the benzoic acid installation is functional, undergoing technological tests. The period of technological tests began in the month of December 2018 and takes place over a period of 6 months, period at the end of which all the technological parameters will be stabilised, the work instructions will be finalized and the staff will be instructed according to the new modifications.

The organic synthesis products manufactured are meant for the industrial chemical applications of high technical level, their use being in an ascending trend in the chemical industry.

At the same time the company continued in the year 2019 the activity of renting its available locations, obtaining incomes from rents.

The company intends the further development of the manufacturings at a high technical level.

The main products manufactured in the year 2019 and the incomes obtained from their sale, but also other incomes, compared to the previous year are:

Crt. no.	Products	30 JUN 2019		30 JUN 2018
		lei	%	lei	%
1	Exploitation of the industrial platform	627.817	4.60	806.546	6,20
2	Organic synthesis manufacturings	13.012.389	95.40	12.203.971	93,8
	Total	13.640.206	100.00	13.010.517	100.00

1.1.3. Evaluation of the technical-material supply

The company acquires industrial technology from renowned companies in the field, both from inland and from abroad.

As for the acquisition of raw resources, materials, energy, the company acts freely on the competitive market.

1.1.4. Evaluation of the sale activity

S.C. Sinteza S.A. sells the products manufactured on markets such as Europe, Turkey, Russia and Asia.

The company sells on the free competitive market, without significant dependencies upon a customer or a group of customers.

The company uses in the sale both the direct sale and the sale through distributors.

1.1.5. Evaluation of the aspects related to the company's staff

In the year 2019 the average recorded number of staff members was 81 persons. Within the work relations there were no conflictual elements.

The company periodically organizes courses for professional training and intends the financing of some professional school classes of organic synthesis operators/ chemists.

1.1.6 Evaluation of the aspects related to the environmental impact

The company obtained all the authorisations and permits imposed by the legislation in the field. There is no major impact on the environment and there are no litigations related to the breach of the environmental protection legislation.

1.1.7 Evaluation of the research and development activity

The company has an organized own section meant for this activity, the expectations being oriented towards the implementation of new products and technologies.

1.1.8 Evaluation of the activity regarding the risk management

The company acts on the competitive market, being exposed from this point of view to normal risks. There is no major or significant exposure regarding prices or liquidity. The company implements the risk management system, the process covering the identification, analysis, management and monitoring of the risks to which it is exposed.

The price risk - there is a permanent monitoring of this risk considering the market on which the firm acts is a specialized one. In fact the company applies and will apply in the future policies for forming the sale price based on the raw material price (Minimum sale price = Acquisition price + margin). We specify that resorting to this form of price setting is a usual practice on the specific market on which the company acts.;

The credit risk – the company has undergone and will resort in the future as well to resources drawn especially for the financing of the investment objectives. The resource cost is negotiated and generally sized in connection to the reference rates on the financial market so as to be sustainable for the contractual deadlines. One also takes into account the potential variations of the interest rates;

The liquidity risk – there is a permanent preoccupation for maintaining the liquidity at a level above one. On 30.06.2019 this indicator had the value of 1,00; The cash flow risk is monitored daily through prognoses of encashments and weekly and monthly payments. The company applies the policy of the trade credit in the relation with the traditional customers and correlates the encashments deadlines with the deadlines of the payments (suppliers, banks, budgets, salaries).

1.1.9 Elements of perspective regarding the trade company activity

The investments achieved at the end of the year 2018 at the benzoic acid line had as main objective the modernisation and extension of the capacity of the existing production line.

This modernisation determined the improvement of the quality of the obtained product.

The company has at the base of its strategy in the field of quality the satisfaction of the requirements and necessities of its customers and other concerned parties by offering on time quality products according to the requirements of the customers, regulation and environmental protection.

The increase of the product quality will determine the increase of the EU market share, market with higher profit margins, aspect which will be reflected in the operational profit of the company.

In the following period the company will act in the sense of reducing the financings held previously and will seek the generation of financial resources from the programme for surrendering non-core business assets which it owns.

In parallel, the company will run programmes which seek the creation of liquidities from rental or sale of some assets which are no longer affected by the basic activity.

1.1.10 Information regarding the internal control

Within SC Sinteza SA the ensuring of the internal control aims at the internal control and internal audit activities. In the field of internal control one followed the observance of the internal norms, of the decisions of the leading bodies and financing-accounting norms.

The internal audit is ensured by a contract for services with an independent office. 2. Basis of preparation

Declaration of conformity

The individual and consolidated financial statements of the Group are drafted in compliance with the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS). Starting with the financial year 2012, the Company and the Group are obliged to implement the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS).

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of the parent company, S.C. Sinteza S.A. and those of the company attached for consolidation (subsidiary company), S.C. Chimprod S.A. as an entity controlled by the parent company.

Submission of financial statements

The individual and consolidated financial statements are submitted pursuant to the IAS 1 requirements "Submission of financial statements", based on liquidity indicated by the Statement on financial position and based on the nature of income and expenditure set out under Statement of comprehensive income.

Reporting and functional currency

The functional currency chosen is the Romanian leu. The individual and consolidated financial statements are submitted in lei.

Basis of evaluation

The individual and consolidated financial statements were drafted based on the historical cost, except the assets – tangible fixed assets – which are measured at fair value, every two years.

The accounting policies were unfailingly applied during the periods of time indicated by these financial statements.

The principle of continuity of activities was observed.

Use of estimates and assessments

The drafting and submission of the individual and consolidated financial statements in compliance with the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) imply the use of certain estimates, assessments and assumptions which affect the implementation of the accounting policies and of the amounts reported. The estimates, the assessments and the assumptions are based on an historical experience. The results of these estimates constitute the basis of the assessments on the book values that cannot be obtained from other sources. When certain elements of the annual financial statement cannot be accurately evaluated, they are estimated.

The estimates are based on the latest credible information possessed.

The original estimate may suffer modifications when the basic circumstances of the estimate changed or as a result of new information or of a better experience.

Any change of the accounting estimates shall be prospectively ascertained by including it in the outcome:

- Of the period of time when the change occurs, if it affects only the respective time span; or
- Of the period when the change occurs and of the future period of time, if the change affects them too.

The Group uses estimates to determine:

- Doubtful clients and regulations for impairment of the related receivables;
- Value of the risk provisions and expenditure to establish at the end of the financial year for disputes, for decommissioning the tangible fixed assets, for restructuration, for pensions and similar entitlements, for taxes.
- Lifetime of the depreciated assets for which, when re-evaluated, a fair value and a new time span of economic use are established.

The assessments and the assumptions are periodically reviewed by the Company and they are acknowledged during the periods of time when the estimates are reviewed.

3. Significant accounting policies

The parent company and the subsidiary organize and manage the financial accounting, in compliance with the Accounting Law no. 82/1991 republished, with its subsequent amendments and supplementations.

The financial accounting provides the chronological and systematic registration, the information processing, publication and storage on the financial position, the financial performance and other data regarding the activity carried out.

The accounting policies were established so that they ensure the supply, by means of the annual financial statements, of certain information which need to be intelligible, relevant to meet the users' needs when taking decisions, credible so that they accurately represent the assets, the debts, the financial position and profit or the loss of the company, that they do not contain significant errors, they are not biased, to be precise, complete in all important aspects, comparable so that they users may compare the company's financial statements over time, in order to identify the trends of the financial position and its performance and to compare the financial statements with those of the other companies in order to evaluate the financial position and the performance.

The accounting policies were unfailingly applied as regards all periods referred by the individual financial statements.

The individual financial statements are drafted based on the assumption that the Company shall proceed with its activity in the predictable future.

Transactions in foreign currency

Operations in foreign currencies are recorded in lei, according to the exchange rate posted on the date of the settlement of transactions.

At the end of each month, the liabilities in foreign currency are valued according to the exchange rate of the exchange market, posted by the National Bank of Romania on the last banking day of the month concerned. The exchange differences are ascertained in the accounts recorded under the income or expenditure resulted from foreign exchange differences, if applicable.

The exchange differences resulting during the settlement of the liabilities in foreign currency, based on rates different from those based on which they were originally recorded during the month or to those based on which they are recorded in the accounts should be ascertained in the month when they result, as income or expenditure from exchange differences.

The value differences resulting during the settlement of liabilities calculated in lei, according to an exchange rate different from that based on which they were originally recorded during the month or based on those which are recorded in the accounts should be ascertained in the month when they result, under other financial revenues and expenditure.

Financial instruments

The parent company and the subsidiary own as non-derivative financial assets: trade receivables, cash and cash equivalents.

The receivables include:

- trade receivables, which are amounts owed by customers for goods sold or services provided in the ordinary course of business;
- trade bill receivable, trade acceptance, third party instruments;
- amounts owed by directors, shareholders, employees and affiliates.

The receivables are outlined on accrual basis, pursuant to the legal or contractual provisions.

The trade bills receivable may be expected receivable before maturity.

At the end of each month, receivables in foreign currency are valued according to the exchange rate of the exchange market, published by the National Bank of Romania on the last banking day of the month concerned. The exchange differences are specified in the accounts under the income or expenditure from exchange differences, if applicable.

At the end of each month, receivables in lei, which are settled based on a foreign exchange, are valued according to the exchange rate of the exchange market, published by the National Bank of Romania on the last banking day of the month concerned. In this case, the differences are indicated in the accounts under other financial revenues or other financial expenditure, as appropriate.

The exchange differences resulting during the settlement of receivables in foreign currency according to rates different from those based on which they were originally recorded during the month or based on those which are recorded in the accounts should be pointed out in the month when they occur as income or expenditure from exchange differences.

The value differences resulting during the settlement of receivables in lei, according to an exchange rate different from the one based on which they were originally recorded during the month or based on those they were recorded in the accounts should be indicated in the month when they occur under other financial revenues or expenditure.

The balances with banks include:

- Amounts receivable (cheques and trade bill lodged to the banks)
- Availabilities in lei and in foreign currency
- Cheques issued by the company
- Short-term bank credits
- Interests for availabilities and loans granted by banks in current accounts.

The interests payable and receivable, for the ongoing financial year are recorded under financial expenditure or financial revenues, as appropriate.

The transactions for the sale and purchase of foreign currency, including those carried out under contracts with a settlement date, are entered in the accounts based on the rate used by commercial bank organizing the auction using foreign currency; they determine exchange differences related to the exchange rate of the National Bank of Romania.

The foreign currency deposits are evaluated monthly based on the rate of the National Bank of Romania for the last business day of the month.

The payment of the foreign currency deposits shall be made using the exchange rate of the National Bank of Romania posted on the payment date.

The exchange differences between the exchange rate of the date of establishment or the rate based on which they are entered into books and the rate of the National Bank of Romania on the payment date of the bank deposits are recorded under revenues or expenditure from exchange differences, if applicable.

Tangible fixed assets

The tangible fixed assets are assets which:

- are owned by a company in order to be used for the manufacture of goods or supply of services, for rental to third parties or for administrative purposes; and
- are used over a period longer than one year.

Tangible fixed assets include:

- land and buildings;
- technical installations and machines;
- machinery and furniture;
- real estate investments;
- advances payments granted to suppliers of tangible fixed assets;
- tangible fixed assets in progress;
- investment property under construction;
- tangible assets for mineral resource use and evaluation.

The tangible fixed assets are initially measured at cost. This is the cost of acquisition or production cost, depending on the way the tangible fixed asset became the company's property.

The trade discounts granted by the supplier and specified on the purchase invoice adjusts by decreasing the purchase cost of the tangible fixed assets.

The production cost of the assets includes direct costs related to production such as direct materials, energy consumption for technological purposes, the costs of salaries, statutory contributions and other related expenses, directly resulting from the construction of the tangible fixed asset, costs of site preparation, initial delivery and handling costs, installation and assembly costs, testing costs for the proper functioning of the asset, professional fees and fees paid in connection with the asset, the cost of product design and implied by the steps undertaken to obtain the necessary permits;

The subsequent expenditure for a tangible asset is entered:

- as expenditure during the period they were incurred if it is construed as damages or if the purpose of those expenses is to ensure a continuous use of the fixed asset preserving the initial technical parameters; or
- as a component of the asset, as subsequent expenses, if the conditions to be construed as investments for fixed assets are satisfied.

The tangible assets are listed by the balance sheet at their fair value.

The tangible assets are revalued every 2 years.

As regards the years when no revaluation is performed, the tangible assets are listed by the annual financial statements at the value indicated by the last revaluation less the accumulated depreciation and the adjustments for an impairment loss.

The depreciation of the tangible fixed assets is calculated starting with the month following the putting into service and till the full recovery of their input value.

The lands are not subject to depreciation.

The economic life is the time span when an asset is expected to be available for use.

The economic lives established by the company for the main types of fixed assets which are part of its assets are those set by the chemical industry.

The depreciation is entered in the books pursuant to the lifetime and to the depreciation method initially set. In respect of the depreciation of the tangible fixed assets, the Company uses straight-line depreciation, by uniformly including the operating costs of fixed amounts, set commensurate with the number of years of their economic life, for the following types of assets:

- construction;
- technical installations and machines;
- machinery and furniture

The lifetime originally set shall be revised (by decrease or increase) whenever the conditions of use initially estimated are changed, when a tangible asset is subject to ageing, when a shelf-life is implied or a technical state is noted, state which permits a use longer than the one initially estimated.

As a result of the re-estimation of the life originally established, the depreciation expenditure shall be recalculated for the remaining period of use.

Intangible assets

The intangible assets include:

- development costs;
- concessions, patents, licenses, trademarks, rights and similar assets and other intangible assets;
- goodwill;
- advance payments for intangible assets;
- intangible assets for mineral resource exploitation and evaluation

An intangible asset should be acknowledged if and only if:

- it is estimated that the future economic benefits attributable to the asset shall be obtained by the company; and
- the cost of the asset may be accurately established.

An intangible asset is initially entered under the production or purchase cost, depending on the way it became part of the company assets.

The development costs are entered under their cost of production.

The production cost of the fixed assets resulting from the development phase includes the direct costs associated with the production as direct materials, energy consumption for technological purposes, the costs of salaries, statutory contributions to testing costs of the correct operation of the asset, the professional fees and fees paid in connection with the asset, the cost covered for the necessary permits.

The development costs which are deemed as intangible assets, development costs are depreciated during validity period of the contract or during the duration of use, where appropriate.

Financial assets

The financial assets include:

- shares held in subsidiaries;
- loans granted to entities part of the group;
- shares in associates and jointly controlled entities;
- loans granted to associated and jointly controlled entities;
- other fixed assets;
- other loans.

The financial assets are specified under the acquisition value when becoming part of the company assets.

The changes of fair value are specified under the profit and loss account.

Items of stocks

The entry into books of the stock is performed on the date of the transfer of risks and benefits.

When they become the company's property, the stocks are evaluated and entered in the books under the entry value, which is set as follows:

- based on the cost of acquisition - for purchased stocks;
- based on the pre-established production cost - for stocks produced within the company;
- the value of the contribution, set based on an evaluation - for stocks representing the company capital;
- at fair value - for stocks obtained free of charge or found to be extra when inventorying.

The discounts granted by the supplier and specified on the purchase invoice reduces the acquisition cost of the goods.

The standard cost method is used to establish the production cost, taking into account the normal levels of materials and the supplies, the labor, the efficiency and the production capacity.

The normal levels of material consumption shall be reviewed within 12 months.

The inventory outflow of stocks is evaluated and recorded by applying the FIFO method, namely the inventory items which were purchased or produced first shall be those that are consumed and sold first. The items remaining in stock at the end of the time interval are those who were purchased or produced most recently.

On the date when drafting the balance sheet, the stocks are evaluated at the lowest value between the cost and the net realizable value.

The net realizable value is the selling price estimated during the ordinary course of business, less the estimated completion costs and the costs necessary to the sale.

When the company decides to change the use of a tangible asset, namely that it will be sold, at the time when taking the decision to change its purpose, the transfer of the asset shall be entered into books from the category of tangible assets into the one of the stocks held for sale.

Revenues

The revenues are increases of economic benefits, occurred during the financial year, which generated an increase in equity in forms different than those which render the new contributions of the company's new owners.

The revenues category includes both the amounts received or receivable in its own name and the gains from any other source.

The revenues are classified as follows:

- Operating revenues;
- Financial revenues;

The revenues are indicated on an accrual basis.

The revenues from sales of goods are recorded when the goods are delivered to the buyers, when they are delivered based on the invoice or in other circumstances provided by the contract, which confirm the transfer of ownership over such goods to customers.

The revenues from sale of goods are acknowledged when the following conditions are met:

- the significant risks and benefits arising from the ownership of the goods have been transferred to the buyer;
- the company no longer manages the goods as it would have done it normally, if ownership over them and no longer actually controls them;
- the revenues may be reliably evaluated;
- it is likely that the company enjoys the economic benefits associated with the transaction; and
- the transaction costs can be reliably assessed.

The revenues from supply of services are entered in the accounts as they are performed, in connection with the stage of work completion.

The stage of work completion shall be determined based on the completion reports attached to the invoices, on the acceptance protocol or other documents attesting the work development and the acceptance of services rendered.

The interest revenues are periodically ascertained, as they are generated.

The revenues from royalties and rents are ascertained pursuant to the maturities of the contract.

The revenues from dividends are ascertained when the shareholder's right to collect them is established.

The revenues from the reduction or cancellation of provisions, from the adjustments made for depreciation or impairment are entered if it turns out they are no longer necessary, if the risk occurs or the expenditure becomes chargeable.

The revenues are assessed at the value determined by the agreement between the seller and buyer, taking into account the amount of any trade discounts granted.

The revenues received before the date of the balance sheet for the subsequent financial year are listed under revenues in advance.

Expenses

The expenses of the parent company and of the subsidiary represent the amounts paid or payable for:

- consumption of stocks;
- works executed and services provided in the benefit of the company;
- expenditure on staff;
- execution of certain statutory or contractual obligations;
- provisions;
- depreciations;
- adjustments for depreciation or loss in value.

The accounts for the expenditure are kept based on the types of expenses, as follows:

- operating expenses;
- financial expenses.

The synthetic accounts of expenditure containing multiple items with different tax deductibility turn into analytical accounts, so that each analytical account show its specific content.

Liabilities

The liabilities are pointed out in the books in relation to third parties.

The accounts of suppliers and of the other liabilities are kept on categories, as well as on each natural and legal person.

The personnel entitlements are entered in books specifying the contributions withheld.

The payable income tax should be ascertained as debt related to the amount unpaid.

The deferred tax is the amount of the income tax payable in the future. The debts concerning the deferred tax constitute of the amounts of income tax payable in future accounting periods of time, as regards the taxable temporary differences.

It is calculated based on tax rates that are expected to be applicable to temporary differences, when they are resumed, pursuant to the legislation in force on the reporting date.

The deferred tax assets are the amounts of the income tax recoverable in future accounting periods of time.

The deferred tax assets and liabilities are compensated only if there is a legal right to offset the current liabilities and debts with the tax.

Provisions

A provision shall be entered in the accounts when:

- the company has a current obligation generated by a previous event;

- it is likely that an outflow of resources shall be required to settle the obligation; and
- a reliable estimate of the value of the obligation may be performed.

The provisions are not recognized for future operating losses.

The provisions are reviewed on the date when the individual financial statements are drafted and adjusted to reflect the current best estimate.

If no outflow of resources is likely in order to settle an obligation, the provision is invalidated by being resumed under revenues.

Commercial and financial discounts

The trade discounts granted by the supplier and indicated by the purchase invoice adjusts decreasing the purchase cost of the goods.

The trade discounts granted to customers adjusts in order to reduce the amount of revenues related to the transaction.

Contingent assets and liabilities

The contingent assets and liabilities are specified by the explanatory notes if it is likely to have inflows of economic benefits.

They are annually evaluated to determine if an outflow of resources including economic benefits has become likely and it is necessary to ascertain a liability or a provision in the financial statements for the period when the change occurred.

Events following the drafting of financial statements

The events following the balance sheet date are those favorable or unfavorable events that occur between the balance sheet date and the date when the publication of the annual financial statements is authorized. They are submitted in notes when they are deemed significant.

New standards and interpretations

New interpretations, amendment or standards have been issued, which did not come into force as regards the financial year of 2018 or which were not adopted.

They have not been applied when drafting the financial statements of 2018.

The Company does not expect that these new standards, amendments or interpretations affect significantly its individual financial statements.

4. Determination of fair values

The disclosure requirements of the information set out by the financial statements, as well as some of the Company's accounting policies determine the need for their disclosure.

The Company assessed the fair value of property items on the date when it adopted the IFRS and it submitted the financial statements of prior periods at fair value.

The Company uses, as much as possible, observable market information when valuing the assets or the liabilities at fair value. The hierarchy of the fair value classifies the entry data for the valuation techniques used to measure the fair value on three levels, as follows:

- Level 1: (unadjusted) quoted price on the active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the entity may access on the valuation date;
- Level 2: entry data, different than the quoted prices referred by level 1, which are observable for assets or liabilities, either directly or indirectly;
- Level 3: non-observable entry data for assets or liabilities.

If the entry data for the measurements of the fair value of an asset or of a liability may be classified on several levels of the fair value hierarchy, the measurement based on fair value is entirely classified as entry data with the lowest level of uncertainty which is significant for the whole measurement.

Measurement techniques and entry data used to perform measurements IFRS 13.91(1)

The appraiser used in its report on appraisal of buildings and lands:

Market data selected by the appraiser: analysis of real estate market:

- Specific real estate market
- Analysis of the offer existing on the market
- Analysis of demand
- Market balance

b. Information supplied by the proprietor: Documents on the history of fixed assets, repair works performed, degree of use. Presentation of classification level of measurements at fair value in the fair value hierarchy IFRS 13.93 (b)

Based on the entry data used by the valuation technique, the fair value of the buildings and lands on 31st December 2018 was classified at level 3 of the fair value hierarchy, the valuation being performed based on the non-observable data on the active market of lands and real estates.
