Important Events to Report: Ascendia S.A. Joins the First Group of Companies Listed on the BVB Growth Market

Ascendia S.A. (stock symbol: ASC) informs investors that, starting November 20, 2026, the company's shares and bonds will be traded on the SME Growth Market (PC), the new segment of the Multilateral Trading Facility (MTF) operated by the Bucharest Stock Exchange (BVB).

Ascendia will thus be among the first group of issuers to join the Growth Market, coinciding with the launch of the new MTF structure.

In order to carry out the technical operations required for the transfer, trading in Ascendia's financial instruments (ASC and ASC27) will be suspended on November 18–19, 2026, and will resume on Friday, November 20, 2026, on the Growth Market.

According to the schedule communicated by the BVB, all active trading orders will be cancelled after the close of the trading session on November 17, 2026. Investors wishing to maintain their trading intentions may re-enter their orders starting November 20, 2026.

The transition to the Growth Market marks a new milestone in Ascendia's journey on the stock exchange and reflects the Company's commitment to transparency, corporate governance, and long-term development, as well as to maintaining ongoing communication with its investors and shareholders.
