About the Whitebook on Communication of Listed Companies - third assessment

The periodical Whitebook on Communication of Listed Companies is the result of an assessment carried out by the Bucharest Stock Exchange with a purpose of evaluating the quality, completeness and accuracy of information provided to the investors by the issuers listed on BVB's Main Market. This is the third assessment carried out by the Bucharest Stock Exchange overall and a second one in 2017. While the third assessment was initially envisaged for 2018, we have received many requests from issuers who wanted the re-assessment to take place sooner. We have welcomed those requests as a positive sign that the publication of the previous Whitebook as well as complementing Guidebook on Best Practices in IR Communication were well received and have been an impulse for many issuers to adjust and improve their websites.

As it was in case of the previous edition, the Whitebook, together with the Guidebook on Best Practices in IR Communication, aim to promote the best standards and reward the best performing issuers while, at the same time, provide guidance to those who still need to improve.

All the work so far carried out in 2017, including the publication of two editions of the Whitebook on Communication of Listed Companies and the first Guidebook on Best Practices in IR Communication, is in line with Bucharest Stock Exchange's efforts to continue improving the corporate governance environment of the Romanian capital markets. It is crucial for the confidence of investors, both local and international, that standards in a manner in which the companies communicate are introduced and applied in Romania. This is why the results of each Whitebook assessment are important since they are a step in introducing top quality guidelines in the market.

The release of the Whitebook will be followed by the BVB Issuer Awards – a special awards gala aimed to reward companies that set the highest standards in the Investor Relations communication in Romania. Furthermore, Bucharest Stock Exchange will continue with educational initiatives towards issuers and will organize a set of comprehensive trainings, for the benefit of all listed companies, that will guide them through different aspects related to the process of ameliorating their communications and investor relations standards.

Methodology of the third assessment

About the third assessment

Over the months of August and September 2017, Bucharest Stock Exchange has carried out an evaluation of the websites as well as email communications of 85 issuers from the Main Market. The evaluation was a part of the third assessment for the purpose of The Whitebook on Communication of Listed Companies.

As in the previous assessment, analysis carried out consisted of two complementary dimensions: qualitative evaluation and matrix assessment, having as final purpose rating companies' performance as well as pinpointing issuer's best practices and what can be improved (referred to as 'room for improvement'). The results of the analyses can be found on the following pages.

While the qualitative assessment focused on outlining the strengths and shortcomings of the issuers' websites, the matrix assessment was used to measure, in a comparable method, the quality of 7 key aspects of the issuer's IR communications.

A scoring system, almost exactly the same one as in the previous assessment, has been used. A company could have scored maximum 10-points. The scoring has allowed for a consistent and uniform assessment of the quality of the issuer's communication as well as permitted us to see the progress each of the companies have done. The detailed manner in which the companies were awarded points can be found on page 11 of this document.

In order to allow the companies to improve, we have used the same scoring and assessment system as in the previous assessment, with the only exception that we have split 'Easiness to find IR information' criterion into two categories – 'Easiness to find IR information' (awarded max. 1 point) and 'Equal access to information' (awarded max. 1 point) all in order to stress the importance of providing equal and simultaneous information in both English and Romanian.

We have also adjusted the manner in which we distributed points as compared to the previous assessment as well as provided our comments on why the score has been lower than maximum amount of points – all with an end goal of providing the feedback in as clear and transparent manner as possible.

Qualitative assessment

The qualitative assessment has not changed since the previous edition of the Whitebook. It has focused on outlining the strengths as well as shortcomings, referred to as 'room for improvement', of the issuers' websites. The assessment directly pinpointed the issues that should be corrected and the best practices that can be implemented immediately.

The basis for the qualitative assessment was the list of general information that should be provided by any issuer from the Main Market on its website. The list of was prepared taking into consideration the most important features of the issuer's website as outlined in Section D: Building value through investor relations of the BVB's Corporate Governance Code (available here).

The type of information that shall be included on each issuer website covers both - the general aspects (such as existence of dedicated Investor Relations (IR) section and Corporate Governance (CG) section/sub-section, information about company being listed on BVB, reference to its stock price evolution etc.) as well as more detailed information that shall be available within the IR section (financial information and reports, investor news, GSM information, CG code and related documents, IR contact). The specific elements are outlined on page 8.

The above-specified information should be easily accessible on the website, not buried in the reports. Thus the audit focused on verifying only the content included directly on the websites.

Apart from verifying the website content, the qualitative assessment has also included sending an IR-related question to the dedicated IR addresses provided on the issuers' websites. In cases when such contacts were not identifiable, the email was sent to a general e-mail address provided by the company.

Technological sophistication

Technological sophistication refers to tools and techniques used to build the presentation of the content, impactful for the level and quality of communication.

While technological sophistication does not necessarily equal user-friendliness, it has a significant influence on how user-friendly a website is perceived. User-friendliness refers to the ease of use and learnability of a website. User-friendly websites can be distinguished through 3 features: they are more efficient to use since it takes less time to identify the needed information, they are easy to operate since the website is intuitive, and lastly, they are more satisfying to use.

One of the most common hindrances to the user-friendliness is the impeded site navigation. Site navigation refers to how well organized and inter-linked different sections of the website are. As the website's navigation system is a road map to all the different areas and information, it allows the visitors to experience the site with the most efficiency and the least incompetence. If the site navigation is impeded, the website user has problems with finding information he was looking for.

During the October assessment, we have paid special attention to these three aspects and how the website of each of the issuers scored in the 'technological sophistication'. For companies that are still lacking in this area, guidance was provided both in the qualitative section (under 'room for improvement') as well as the matrix assessment (under 'user-friendliness' criterion).

*According to Rivel Research, of the 404 institutional investors interviewed globally, 77% believe that a poorly designed or an incomplete website has an unfavorable impact on the investment interest in the company.**

Issuers website: what it should include?

GENERAL INFORMATION

- Information about company being listed on BVB
- Link to the issuer's section on BVB website
- Information about the stock: symbol, price, evolution
- Dedicated Investor Relations section
- Dedicated Corporate Governance section/subsection (recommended)
- All the relevant information to be provided in both English and Romanian

IR SECTION

- Financial information for each year (annual, half year, quarterly reports), information regarding dividends
- News for investors split by year: GSM, current reports, financial calendar
- Management structure including CVs of the Board members
- Corporate Governance related documents (Articles of Association, GSM procedure, dividend policy, forecast) and other related documents such as Comply or Explain declaration – ideally under the dedicated CG section/subsection
- IR contact, indicating names of the person(s) / organizational unit responsible for IR

The above specified information should be easily accessible on the website, not buried inside reports. Thus the audit focused on verifying only the content included directly on the websites.

Email request: what we asked for?

The emails were sent individually on August 29th, between 11:30AM - 12:00PM from personalized Gmail mailbox, tudorica1983@gmail.com, to the IR addresses provided on the issuers' websites.

The request sent via e-mail was straightforward – the first question was regarding company's events for investors and shareholders. The ideal answer should provide details (date) when the 3rd quarter results will be released as well as provide information whether the company will host a conference call or a meeting. A mention of any other events organized by the company, conferences attended by the company's management or other type of events relevant for investors/shareholders, was welcome.

As per the second question related to the dividends, it was sufficient to provide information if the company will be distributing dividends from the 2016 profits and if yes, what was the value of dividend per share.

EMAIL REQUEST

Organizati evenimente pentru investitori si actionari?

Am actiuni la compania dumneavoastra, cati bani iau pe dividende?

What was assessed?

Matrix assessment

The matrix assessment focused on 2 key elements – the website and the dedicated IR section as well as e-mail communication on an IR-related subject.

In total 7 general aspects, outlined on the right side, were taken into consideration. Each of the aspects could be awarded between 1 to 4 points, depending on the question, adding up to the total of maximum 10 points that a company could score. The criteria in which the points were awarded are outlined, in a detailed manner, on the following slide.

For the purpose of this assessment, it was established that companies that scored below 4 points overall, deliver low quality of the investor communications. These companies are advised to take immediate measures in order to improve the current situation.

General results of the third assessment

May vs. October assessment: general remarks

The overall result of the third assessment is that there has been progress and issuers have improved their websites and in some cases, also online communications. In case of some companies the difference between the scorings were of 1-2 points, but we also had some impressive jumps in the results, best example being Mecanica Ceahlau which registered the biggest improvement – from 3 points to 9,75 / 10 points, followed by Electromagnetica that improved from 1 to 7 points and Romcarbon – from 4,5 to 9,5 points.

Another important development is that the number of companies that registered a top score of 9 – 10 points has doubled, reaching 17 issuers (20%) and for the first time, three companies: Bucharest Stock Exchange, Nuclearelectrica and SIF Transilvania, have reached a perfect 10.

At the same time, a number of companies have received a lower score in this assessment than in the previous one. It was mostly a case for companies that answered to the email request during the previous assessment but failed to do so this time around. There were also cases when the companies received lower score because this time around, the manner in which we have awarded the points was slightly adjusted, especially in category 'Completeness of information provided'.

What is worthy to be emphasized is the fact that not all the companies that answered to the e-mail request during the previous assessment, managed to answer this time around. 12 companies that answered the previous e-mail request, failed to do so in August. This proves that not all the companies are following up on their IR-dedicated mailboxes in a consistent manner. 33 companies didn't answer any of our e-mail requests, neither in April nor in August.

Issuers websites – results

FUNCTIONAL WEBSITES

At the time of the assessment, only 1 issuer did not have operational website, an improvement since the previous assessment when 4 issuers had unfunctional websites.

INFORMATION ABOUT STOCK PRICE

39 out of 85 issuers have provided information about the company's stock price, either by including a graph directly on the website or by providing link to the issuer dedicated section on BVB website (previous assessment: 21/83 issuers). Some issuers still provide stock price data and/or graphs that are outdated and not functional.

DEDICATED SECTIONS

64 out of 85 issuers had a dedicated IR tab on their website (improvement from 56/83 in previous assessment). 53 issuers had the IR content available both in Romanian and English languages. 48 issuers (increase from 46/83) had a dedicated corporate governance section or subsection. For the other issuers, the CG information was usually scattered all over the website, difficult to find.

IR PRESENTATION

Whereas it is not obligatory, it is a good practice for issuers to upload an IR presentation on the website. 11 out of 85 analysed issuers provided the IR presentation on their website and 7 of them had it available in both English and Romanian languages. In previous assessment, 7 out of 83 issuers provided the IR presentation on their website.

IR CONTACT

An email address to the IR team was provided on the websites by 50 out of 85 issuers (improvement from 35/83 as per previous assessment). Out of 50 issuers, a number of them provided generic e-mail addresses, without specifying the names of the persons or dedicated department responsible for the IR activity of the company.

IMPROVED AFTER 2ND ASSESSMENT

43 of the issuers used the results of the 2nd Whitebook assessment in order to improve their websites. All the issuers were directly contacted by BVB with relation to this specific subject.

Email requests – results

ANSWERS RECEIVED

To the present date, 41 out of 85 issuers (48%) answered to our anonymous request for information. 2 companies from BET index did not answer to the email. As a comparison, during the previous assessment, 39 out of 83 issuers (47%) answered to our IR request.

ANSWERS RECEIVED IN DUE TIME

48 hours were established as sufficient time to answer to the two basic questions. 85% (35 companies) of the issuers that answered to our request managed to send their reply within 48 hours.

AVERAGE TIME OF ANSWER

Most companies succeeded in answering within 24 hours, with the average time needed to answer being 21 hours – acceptable since the request was straightforward.

COMPARISON WITH 2ND ASSESSMENT

28 issuers have answered to both emails sent – the one in April 2017 and in August 2017. That means that 10 issuers who received points for answering during the previous edition of the Whitebook, failed to answer again. 13 new companies (including new issuer, AAGES), have improved by answering to the email during the October assessment.

ISSUERS WITH EXCELLENT ANSWERS

Out of those who answered, 56% (23 issuers) offered an excellent, detailed response within the set-out time limit (48 hours) that included well-structured information and sources.

ISSUERS THAT DID NOT ANSWER

A total of 44 emails remained unanswered by the issuers until the present date.

- The CVs of the Board members are available on the Romanian version of the website, while on the English version only 3 out of 7 CVs are available.
