Communiqué

In data de 16 martie 2012, OMV Bulgaria OOD, o subsidiara detinuta in proportie de 99,9% de OMV Petrom S.A., a fost notificata de catre Comisia pentru Protectia Concurentei din Bulgaria cu privire la o pretinsa incalcare a reglementarilor privind concurenta. Pretinsa incalcare priveste o serie de actori importanti ai pietei de carburanti din Bulgaria. OMV Bulgaria OOD are la dispozitie 30 de zile pentru a pune la dispozitia autoritatilor argumente scrise si dovezi.

Concluziile investigatiei Comisiei pentru Protectia Concurentei din Bulgaria, inclusiv posibilele sanctiuni, vor fi cuprinse in decizia finala a Comisiei. Aceasta va fi emisa dupa formularea raspunsului de catre OMV Bulgaria si de catre celelalte companii vizate cu privire la forma actuala a raportului de investigatie si dupa audierea in fata Comisiei.

On March 16, 2012, OMV Bulgaria OOD, a 99.9% subsidiary of OMV Petrom S.A., has been notified upon an alleged breach of antitrust regulations by the Bulgarian Commission for Protection of Competition. The alleged breach concerns a number of the key players on the Bulgarian fuels market. OMV Bulgaria OOD has been provided 30 days to provide written arguments and evidence.

The findings of the Bulgarian Commission for Protection of Competition, including possible financial sanctions, will be specified in the final decision which will be issued after the receipt of OMV Bulgaria and other involved companies' response to the statement of objections and after a hearing at the Bulgarian Commission for Protection of Competition.
