The non-resident shareholders who choose one of the payment forms described in paragraphs 2, 3 and 4

The non-resident shareholders mentioned in paragraphs 2, 3 and 4, who wish to benefit from the more favorable provisions of the Convention for the avoidance of double taxation concluded between Romania and their country of tax residence, can file the valid Certificate of tax residence for the year in which the dividend payment is made, in the original or certified copy issued by an authorized entity from Romania, accompanied by a legalized translation, in the original, at BRD's headquarters: BRD Tower, 1-7 Ion Mihalache Boulevard, sector 1 Bucharest, in the attention of the General Secretariat, until May 24, 2021.

If the shareholder does not present the Certificate of tax residence, the withheld tax will be calculated by applying the quota established by Law 227/2015 on the Fiscal Code, with amendments and supplements.

The shareholders, who have not requested the payment of dividends until the date of payment, can send to BRD's headquarters until November 22, 2021 the Certificate of tax residence in order to apply the most favorable tax rate according to the Convention for the avoidance of double taxation concluded between Romania and their country of tax residence.

Shares held in co-ownership (Joint accounts)

For the shares held in co-ownership by two or more Holders, the payment of dividends shall be made as follows:

- ✓ In case of cash payments, the payments will be done only if all co-owners present at one of BRD's counters, in person or through legal and / or conventional representative, and submit the documents required for cash payments.
- ✓ In case of payments to shareholders who have an account opened at a participant, the dividends destined to the co-owners will be transferred to the Participant whose clients they are.
- ✓ If the co-owners require the payment by bank transfer, the dividends destined to the co-owners will be transferred into the account indicated by them, to the Issuer or to the Central Depository.
- ✓ If both co-owners require the registration by the Central Depository of the direct transfer of share ownership as a result of an output from co-ownership, in accordance with the applicable legal regime, and also the direct payment of dividends to each of the co-owners according to the number of shares acquired in sole ownership, the Central Depository will block the initial dividend payment, and will inform BRD regarding the registration of that transfer of ownership and the number of financial instruments acquired in exclusive ownership by each co-owner. BRD will calculate the Amount of money corresponding to each former co-owner and will send to the Central Depository the File containing the information for the payment of Amounts of Money to each of them.

Deceased shareholders

- ✓ For the deceased shareholders, the dividends will be paid at the request of their successors, by transfer or in cash. Prior to the payment, the heirs must require to the Central Depository the registration of the transfer of shares in BRD's Shareholders Register (to the successors) as a result of the inheritance, and also the direct payment of dividends to each of the heirs, according to the number of acquired shares. Following the request of the heirs, the Central Depository will block the initial dividend payment and will inform BRD regarding the registration of transfer of ownership, the identity of the heir / heirs, and the number of financial instruments acquired in ownership by the heir / heirs. BRD will calculate the Amount of money corresponding to each heir and will send to the Central Depository the File containing the information necessary for the payment of the Amounts to each of them.
