BRD – Groupe Société Générale informs that on 6 April 2026 received from the Competition Council the preliminary report prepared within the investigation concerning an alleged agreement and/or concerted practice related to the coordinated setting of the ROBOR reference rate by the 10 banks participating in the panel.

The report represents an intermediate procedural act, preceding the hearing stage of the parties investigated, and does not constitute a decision of the Competition Council.

BRD will submit observations and arguments within the applicable procedural framework and will maintain its position that its conduct has always been fully compliant with the relevant legal framework regarding the coordinated setting of this reference rate.

In this context, any potential adverse decision of the Competition Council will be challenged in accordance with the law.
