Bucharest Stock Exchange S.A. (“BVB”) informs investors regarding the ruling delivered on 22 May 2026 by the Bucharest District Court 2, in civil case no. 29636/300/2025, concerning the contractual liability claim filed by BVB, as claimant, against International Business Center Modern S.R.L. (“IBCM”).

The dispute concerned BVB’s request for the restitution of the amount of RON 166,593.63, representing the value of the guarantee provided by BVB pursuant to the Lease Agreement, following the termination in 2024 of the contractual relationship between the parties by unilateral notice from BVB. In addition, BVB requested the payment of statutory default interest related to the respective amount.

IBCM filed a counterclaim requesting the court to order BVB to: (i) pay the amount of RON 210,000, representing compensation for loss of use of the premises; (ii) pay the amount of RON 10,000, representing statutory default interest related to the alleged loss of use; (iii) pay the amount of RON 4,000, representing inflation index adjustments; and (iv) hand over the premises in the condition in which they had been initially received, or, alternatively, authorize IBCM to carry out directly all works necessary to restore the premises to their initial condition, at the exclusive expense of BVB.

By the ruling delivered today, 22 May 2026, the court partially admitted BVB's claim and ordered IBCM to pay the amount of RON 166,593.63 as principal debt, together with the statutory interest related thereto, calculated from the date of filing of the claim until the date of effective payment. The court rejected the request for penalties calculated from the due date until the filing of the claim. Furthermore, the court dismissed in its entirety the counterclaim filed by IBCM as unfounded. The decision is not final and may be appealed within 30 days from its communication.
