PRESS RELEASE - November 10, 2026

2026 Capital Markets Day - Learning from the past, crafting the future of energy in Romania

Electrica is pleased to invite investors, financial analysts and other interested parties to Capital Markets Day 2026 (CMD), on November 17, 2026, between 11:30 and 16:00 (Romanian time), at the Filaret Electric Plant in Bucharest (click).

During the event, Electrica's entire executive team will present the Group's strategic directions for 2030, the stage of its investments, both in the network and in its portfolio of energy production, storage and cogeneration projects, as well as the financing and capital allocation framework. The presentations will be followed by a Q&A session open to participants in the room as well as to those connected online.

The event will take place in a hybrid format, with physical participation and live webcast transmission (between 12:00 and 15:00). The language of the event will be English, and the translation into Romanian will be provided both in the hall and online.

The logistical details regarding the registration, both for physical and online participation, the agenda, materials and other useful information, including the subsequent registration of the event can be accessed on the Electrica website, in the Investors > Capital Markets Day section.

We invite you to download the Electrica ID application, through which you can more easily access on mobile devices all the information necessary for the event: Android (click to download) and Iphone (click to download).

We remind you that, on the same day, starting at 16:00 (Romanian time), the teleconference to present the results will also take place. The event will also take place in a hybrid format, with physical participation from the Dimitrie Leonida Technical Museum, Bucharest (click) and live webcast transmission. The necessary information and online login details are available here.

To ensure the smooth running of the events, please confirm your physical participation either by email at ir@electrica.ro or by phone/WhatsApp messages at +40731796111. If you want to ask questions before or during the event, you can do so either by emailing ir@electrica.ro and through the dedicated platform accessible here.
