Technical specifications

regarding the transfer to the SME Growth Market of the financial instruments that meet the specific requirements for the Growth Market and that are currently admitted to the BVB's Listed Financial Instruments Sector, for trading them starting with 20.11.2026 on the Growth Market within the BVB's MTS

Considering the following:

- the BVB's Decision to include, starting with November 20, 2026, on the Growth Market of the financial instruments of the eligible Issuers who have signed and submitted to BVB the trading contract within Growth Market for the Growth Market by October 30, 2026

- Technical specifications issued by the BVB regarding the set-up and definition by the BVB of the trading markets to be used for trading within the SME Growth Market (Growth Market), effective from November 20, 2026, in accordance with the BVB Code - MTF, which enters into force on November 20, 2026, this entails the transfer to the Growth Market of the financial instruments (shares and bonds) that are currently admitted at the BVB's Listed Financial Instruments Sector and that meet the relevant requirements for inclusion in the Growth Market, so that these financial instruments begin trading within the Growth Market as of November 20, 2026.

In this context, the following operations will be carried out within the BVB's trading system:

- the symbols for shares and bonds currently admitted to the BVB's Listed Financial Instruments Sector which meet the specific requirements for the Growth Market will be suspended from trading on November 18 and November 19, 2026, in order to transfer them to the Growth Market;
- after the close of the trading session on November 17, 2026, all orders existing in the Arena trading system for the respective symbols will be deleted;
- the share-type symbols in question will be traded starting from November 20, 2026, on the share markets within the Growth Market, namely:
    - share main market code: XRSC, share deal market code: XDSC
- the bond-type instruments in question will be traded, starting from November 20, 2026, on the specific bond markets within the Growth Market, taking into account their particularities regarding the applicable trading and settlement currencies, namely:
    - for bonds denominated in lei: main market code: XRBC, deal market code: XDBC
    - for bonds denominated in EUR: main market code: EXRBC, deal market code: EXDBC
- the transfer of the respective instruments to the Growth Market does not entail the change of their reference price, while maintaining, for each of these, the reference price established at the end of the trading session of November 17, 2026 (the last trading session of each financial instrument/ symbol on the BVB's MTF Listed Financial Instruments Sector);
    - the other characteristics of the symbols in question, with the exception of those specified, shall remain unchanged (liquidity band, minimum deal value, etc.).

The list of financial instruments (shares and bonds) that meet the specific requirements for inclusion in the Growth Market and which will begin trading within the Growth Market, as part of the SMT, as of November 20, 2026, can be found in the Annexes section of the BVB announcement regarding "The new structure of the BVB Multilateral Trading Facility will become operational on November 20, 2026", available at the following link:
