EVERGENT Investments informs on the unauthorized use of the Company's name and image

We inform EVERGENT Investments shareholders and investors on the Bucharest Stock Exchange, the trading place of EVER shares, on attempts to defraud carried out by third party individuals, who use the Company's name and image without any right, to determine individuals or legal entities to invest.

The Company fully dissociates itself from such fraudulent practices and recommends that no one pursue so-called investment proposals transmitted by phone or other means of communication on behalf of EVERGENT Investments. The Company's management or employees do not initiate such steps and do not request any data or information for trading purposes.

EVERGENT Investments has not carried out and does not carry out activities related to phone marketing, nor call campaigns directly or through agents (call-centers or other empowered entities).

We recommend that investors make investment decisions based exclusively on official information published on the web pages www.evergent.ro/en, www.bvb.ro, as well as analyses provided by brokers that are authorized by the Financial Supervisory Authority. Moreover, we encourage reporting any suspicions of fraud to competent authorities immediately.
