Important events to be reported: Additional information regarding the commercial relationship with AnimaWings

Further to Current Report No. 08/2026 dated 1 October 2026, Christian '76 Tour S.A. (the "Company" or "Christian Tour") provides additional information regarding its financial exposure to Anima Wings Aviation S.A. ("AnimaWings"), following its assessment of the balances outstanding at 30 September 2026. AnimaWings and Memento Air S.R.L. ("Memento Air") are related parties of the Company; neither entity forms part of Christian Tour's consolidation perimeter. The assessment covers both the Company's direct balances with AnimaWings and any potential indirect effects through its commercial relationship with Memento Air.

At 30 September 2026, Christian Tour recorded a net receivable of RON 377.94 from AnimaWings and a net payable of EUR 21,863.65 to AnimaWings. At the same date, there were no outstanding advances or other significant amounts recoverable directly from AnimaWings.

Between 1 and 5 October 2026, adjustments relating to passenger taxes and fuel costs for flights operated were recorded. According to the accounting records updated as at 5 October 2026, within the direct Christian Tour-AnimaWings commercial relationship, the net payable in EUR decreased from EUR 21,863.65 to EUR 21,289.97, while the net receivable in RON increased from RON 377.94 to RON 86,387.83. These balances may be subject to further adjustments upon completion of the reconciliation process.

Memento Air contractually supplies air transport services to Christian Tour and other legal entities through arrangements with multiple airlines, including AnimaWings. At 30 September 2026, Christian Tour recorded a net receivable of EUR 179,422.28 from Memento Air and a net payable of RON 95,342.89 to Memento Air. These balances represent commercial positions with Memento Air, separate from the direct relationship with AnimaWings. Any losses arising from Memento Air's own receivables from AnimaWings are borne by Memento Air and are not passed on to Christian Tour.

The level of outstanding balances at 30 September 2026 reflects the seasonal nature of Christian Tour's business and the completion of the peak summer holiday season. Advance payments made to secure air transport services ahead of the season are progressively settled as the contracts are performed.

At 30 September 2026, Christian Tour had no guarantees, suretyships, letters of comfort or other payment commitments in force in favour of AnimaWings or its creditors.

Based on its assessment of the direct commercial relationship with AnimaWings and any potential indirect effects through the relationship with Memento Air, management maintains its assessment that the total exposure is not expected to have a significant impact on the Company's liquidity or financial performance. Any impairment adjustments relating to this exposure are likewise not expected to have a significant impact on the results for Q3 2026. The accounting assessment will be completed following the reconciliation of the outstanding balances.

As previously reported, all affected charter flights forming part of Christian Tour's holiday programmes have been reassigned to alternative carriers. Management does not expect significant additional costs in Q4 2026 from this reallocation. At 30 September 2026, Christian Tour had no air transport services contracted with AnimaWings for the 2027 season.

The Company will provide an update on the reconciliation and related accounting treatment in its financial report for Q3 2026 and will communicate any material changes to the assessment above promptly.
